We'll Bet a Cent

You will read this. It is to call your attention to the fact that Dr. Hale's Household Ointment is the finest remedy in the world for general use. It takes away pains at once. For cuts, burns, bruises, neuralgia and a hundred ailments one is apt to have. You want it in the house all the time, and after you have once tried it you won't be without it. 25 and 50 cents a box at P. H. CARPENTER'S drug store.

A Good Idea.

The city and county will sell at public sale next county court day the lot on the east side of St. Clair street at the north end of the bridge, and will require the purchaser to erect upon it a two-story brick building, or better, during this year. Should a neat new building be put up there it will shut off the view from the bridge of unsightly back premises, and now if the city and county will tear away and rebuild or improve the old buildings on the west side of Bridge street at the south end of the bridge the surroundings will be more in keeping with the handsome structure which spans the river.

Passed.

Of those who stood the Civil Service examination in this city recently the following passed:

Carriers—Louis Harris, 84; J. M. Williams, 82; Watt Stephens, 73; Bert Bacon, 70.

Clerk—Aleck Johnson, 76, and Hugh McKee, 70.

Dispensary

Isn't pleasant nor is it necessary. Dr. Hale's Household Tea will cure it. We have a great many testimonials from people who say it has absolutely cured them. It is pleasant to take and cost only 25c and 50c a package at P. H. CARPENTER'S drug store.

Announcement.
No apology is necessary on the score of medical propriety for thus announcing to the profession and the public, that we have made a long, careful and special study of cancerous diseases, together with all malignant and other tumors, and are able to offer the results of our extensive experience in Kentucky and surrounding countries in a system of rational and successful treatment, that we believe has never heretofore been attained, and we are able to point to thousands of successful cases—not in a boasting, but rather in a spirit of thankfulness, that we are thus able to prove so clearly our assertion; that our system does cure cancer. With a positive knowledge of this fact now so fully endorsed by thousands of sufferers, and approved by the profession, we should be wanting in humanity if we neglected any means in our power to spread the glad tidings among those afflicted with this most terrible and hopeless of diseases.

We have printed a pamphlet giving the symptoms, cause, varieties, &c., of cancers and tumors. Anyone feeling interesting can get a copy free by addressing,

At Worthville she laid up Wednesday on account of high water, and Capt. Cash. Claxton, the pilot, and Mr. T. B. Langley, the engineer, having nothing else to do, walked up into the town. They had been there but a short time when a train came along on the L. & N. road and in some way Mr. Langley was run over by the cars and so badly injured that he died Thursday. He was a splendid looking young man and his untimely death was a great shock to those who knew him here.

Gov. McKinley Not Coming.

Gov. William McKinley has notified the committee of the Garfield Club that it will be impossible for him to attend the meeting of the State League of Republican Clubs in this city, as his official duties are such that it will be impossible for him to leave home at that time. He already has an engagement to speak on Memorial Day, which is the day before the meeting here, and has been compelled to decline numerous other invitations. The committee will endeavor to have some other speaker of national reputation to address the meeting.

Madeline Merli.

There has been a great deal done of late years toward realism on the stage. We have had real fire engines, real water, real burglars, real horses, &c., but it never seems to enter the head of the average manager to produce real life or natural acting. Nineteenths of the plays require the most exaggerated style of acting, and as common people are in the majority this style of work will always have a large following. The refined class living in the small cities, that cannot readily enjoy this sensational class of plays and players are compelled to go to the large cities to see the best acting or stay at home and wait for the really good artists, which sometimes visit one night stands. Madeline Merli, who will appear at the Opera House on Tuesday evening next, April 17th, is a first-class actress, and as such her engagement in our city should be encouraged by a large audience of our best people.

A Good Position.

Mr. Wallace McCloy, who has been learning telegraphy and the railroad business at the L. & N. Station in this city for some time, has been appointed station agent of the L. & N. Railroad at Taylorsville.

Those who never read the advertisements in their newspapers miss more than they presume. Jonathan Kenison, of Bolan, Worth Co., Iowa, who had been troubled with rheumatism in his back, arms and shoulders, read an item in his paper about how a prominent German citizen of Ft. Madison had been cured. He procured the same medicine and to use his own words: "It cured me right up." He also says: "A neighbor and his wife were both sick in bed with rheumatism. Their boy was over to my house and said they were so bad he had to do the cooking. I told him of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and how it had cured me, he got a bottle and it cured them up in a week. 50 cents bottles for sale by P. H. CARPENTER, South Side druggist.

Court of Claims.

A busy session of the Court of Claims was held on Monday, at which Judge B. G. Williams presided and all the magistrates were present.

One thousand dollars was allowed to each of the four magisterial districts outside of the city for the repair and improvement of old turnpikes, and three thousand dollars was appropriated for the extension of two pikes, in the Bald Knob district.

School Districts Nos. 11, 24 and 33 were allowed seventy-five dollars each.

The contract for repairing and rebuilding the road between the two bridges on the west side of the river was awarded Mr. George Herndon, whose bid was seven hundred and fifty dollars.

The delinquent tax list of the Sheriff was received and he was given credit by same on his account.

The matter of repairing the County Judge's office was referred to a committee composed of Squires McDonald and Rodman and Judge Williams, with power to act.

Squire McDonald was appointed to correspond with our Senators and Congressmen and endeavor to secure an appropriation from Congress to pay for the old St. Clair street bridge, which was torn down by order of the Secretary of War.

A committee was appointed to inquire into the propriety of employing a civil engineer to look after the turnpikes of the county.

After allowing numerous small claims the court adjourned until Monday next, when the tax rate for this year will be fixed.

Released from the Bond.

The case of the Commonwealth vs. Hiram Berry, from this county, was affirmed by the Court of Appeals on Tuesday. Mr. Berry was surety upon the bond of the late Sheriff E. O. Hawkins, but from some informality in the execution of the bond Mr. Berry was released, but the Commonwealth brought suit to make him responsible. The Franklin Circuit Court decided in his favor, the Commonwealth appealed and the Appellate Court has now affirmed the decision of the lower court.

The Evolution

Of medicinal agents of gradually relegating the old time herbs, pills, draughts and vegetable extracts to the rear and bringing into general use the pleasant and effective liquid laxative, Syrup of Figs. To get the true remedy see that it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only. For sale by all leading druggists.

A Neat Piece of Work.

Mr. Chas. M. Bridgeford has about completed a nice piece of work in painting, papering and interior decorating at the new store of Mr. A. Hartstein, on St. Clair street, which reflects credit upon him as a workman. He is taking contracts of this kind and guarantees satisfaction in every case.

Deafness Can't Be Cured.

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When the tube gets inflamed, you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that we cannot cure by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

General Comment.

The Cosmopolitan for April contains a fragment of a most remarkable story which is well authenticated to have come from the pen of the first Napoleon when the future ruler of nations was a lieutenant of artillery. If it is a fair sample of the literary ability at the Euphoric, it is well for his reputation (and possibly for the world, in spite of the deluge of blood into which he plunged Europe) that he decided to stick to the military profession. The story would do credit to the modern blood and thunder school, but it shows (as is remarked by Frederick Masson, under whose editorship the piece was published) the natural trend of Napoleon's mind to scenes of bloodshed. The only interest which could attach itself comes from its authorship.

It is strange how much food for reflection there is to the thoughtful person in the smallest incident. For instance, when travelling by rail, one gets so many glimpses of stranger's lives. You see a young lady get on the train at a station, and a young man who assists her on board, study the faces of the two and you can possibly weave a romance around them. You pass a farmer at work in his field, scarcely taking time to glance at the monster travel, or perchance, ceasing his labor to look as long as the flying train is in sight. How many counties and tragedies has that taken part in? Study your fellow travelers' expressions. What tales they lay bare for him who can but read. Of course their lives are nothing to us, with the usual absorption in ourselves; but reflect for a moment how many lives there are in the world, each of which is to its possessor fraught with just as much interest as ours is to us. Does he not live best who takes part in the most lives of his fellows, with a kind word here, a smile there, a warning when needed? Man was not meant to be selfish, and he who lives for himself comes nearest to being what the Creator intended him to be.

THE RECLUSE. Our better half say they could not keep house without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is used in more than half the homes in Leeds. Sims Bros., Leeds, Iowa. This shows the esteem in which that remedy is held where it has been sold for years and is well known. Mothers have learned there is nothing so good for colds, croup and whooping cough, that it cures these ailments quickly and permanently, and that it is pleasant and safe for children to take. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by P. H. CARPENTER, South Side druggist.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky, as second-class matter.

GEO. A. LEWIS, Editor and Pub.

FRANKFORT, APRIL 14, 1894.

SATURDAY'S SCRAP.

A Pistol and Slung Shot Got in Their Work.

Late Saturday afternoon a party of young men were in the back room of Fincel Brothers' meat store, on St. Clair street, when a difficulty arose between two of the party, Sanford ("Pune") Goin and Will. L. Collins, in which one or two blows were struck when the parties were separated by those present and Goin taken out on the street. Collins started to leave in a little while and just after getting into the store proper Goin came back from the door, rushed at Collins and struck him on the forehead with a slung shot made of a canister shot wrapped in his handkerchief, cutting his head terribly and knocking him down. As Collins arose from the floor he came up with a pistol in his hand and commenced firing. The first shot struck Goin in the left thigh, passing through the muscles, above the bone, and the second took effect in the left side of the neck, passing around and striking the top of the right collar bone, which deflected it out. The last shot felled him to the floor when Collins ceased firing and gave up his pistol.

Goin was taken to the office of Dr. Phlegger, who dressed his wounds, and he was afterwards removed to his home on Mero street, where he has since been confined to the house. Collins was immediately arrested, gave bond for his appearance, and after having the wound in his head dressed went his home in the country.

Goin is a son of the late Philip Goin and has been for several months one of the runners of the fire department, while Collins is a son of Mr. Z. T. Collins, the South Side meat merchant, and has heretofore borne the reputation of being a peaceable, quiet young man.

Called Before the Jury.

The Owensboro Messenger, the editor of which paper is an appointee of and close friend of Governor Brown, stated a few weeks ago that when the Governor took the stump in his canvass for United States Senator he would reveal rascality enough on the part of certain officials or ex-officials on the State House square to put the perpetrators thereof in the penitentiary, and the members of the grand jury now in session concluded that they ought to know about the aforesaid rascality and accordingly issued summonses on Tuesday for Gov. Brown and Mr. Urey Woodson, editor of the Messenger, to appear before that body and state the facts or let the world know whether or not Mr. Woodson has been talking through his hat.

The Governor responded to the summons and appeared before the jury on Wednesday morning, but it is said, that—like Jimmie-the-Well-Digger, when pursued by Officer Norwood, climbed a tree on Broadway and looking down at the officer, remarked that he was nine feet from the ground, above the law and could not be arrested—His Excellency informed the jury that he was the Governor of the State, not subject to the grand jury and could not be questioned by that body in regard to any knowledge he might possess. So there now, he's going to keep it all to himself and fire it off on the stump when he gets ready. But what says Bro. Woodson? He can't get off on any such dodge as that and will have to go a fishing.

The Complexion of a Chinese

Is not yellower than that of an unfortunate individual whose liver complaint has assumed the chronic form. The eyeballs of the sufferer assume a saffron hue, there is dull pain in the region of the organ affected, the tongue is coated, breath sour, sick headaches usually but not always occur, and there is sometimes dizziness on arising from a sitting posture. Constipation and dyspepsia are also attendant of this very common ailment, always in its aggravating form in the case of the liver, which are very dangerous. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters wholly eradicates it, as well as the troubles connected with it and which it originates. In chills and fever, a complaint which always yields to the Bitters, the liver is usually involved. This fine alterative tonic removes constipation and indigestion, rheumatism, nervous and kidney trouble and debility.

CITY ASSESSMENT.

Large Increase Over Last Year.

The report of City Assessor Z. T. Thomasson, which was made to the city council on Tuesday evening, gives the following figures in regard to the assessed value of property in the city:

First Ward—Whites . . .	$1,678,894
Colored . . .	50,700
	$1,729,594
Increase over 1893 . . .	602,763
Second Ward—White . . .	$1,131,599
Colored . . .	21,610
	$1,153,209
Increase over 1893 . . .	6,278
Third Ward—White . . .	$906,660
Colored . . .	74,401
	$981,061
Increase over 1893 . . .	90,341
Total valuation for 1894 . .	$3,863,864
Total increase over 1893 . .	699,482

With a tax rate of $1.25 on the hundred this will give the city a revenue of $48,298.30, to which will be added the license on banks and the tax on the L. & N. and the Kentucky Midland Railroads and will very materially increase the above amount.

LOST—A silver change purse, engraved E. H. T., between the residences of Mrs. E. M. Thomas and Dr. Ely. Reward given if same be left at 228 Washington street. 30-3t.

Will Me t Here Tuesday.

The United States Inter State Commerce Commission will meet in this city on Tuesday to hear the case of Messrs. J. E. Miles & Son against the L. & N. and C. & O. Railroads. Messrs. Miles & Son complain that the railroad companies discriminate against them in freight rates, in that flour ground from Northern wheat is shipped for Louisville millers from that city to points in Virginia for 12 cents per hundred, or in other words, charging a higher rate and then giving a rebate, which brings the charge down to 12 cents, whereas they are charged 18½ cents per hundred from this city to the same points, and are allowed no rebate, thus preventing their putting flour manufactured here in competition with the Louisville article. They will be represented before the commission by Messrs. Knott & Edelen, while the railroads will have their strongest attorneys here to look after their interests. The decision of the case will be watched for with interest, as Messrs. Miles & Son will not alone be affected by it, as some of the questions involved are of great importance to the large saw mill interests here.

Supper and Bazaar.

The ladies of Ascension Church Guild will give a bazaar and supper at the residence on the southwest corner of Main and Washington streets, on Wednesday evening next, April 18th, for the benefit of the church. A great variety of fancy articles will be offered for sale and an elegant supper will be served. All are invited.

Clerk in Post Office.

Mr. Alex. Johnson, having passed the civil service examination, has been appointed clerk in the Post Office by Postmaster Holmes, and entered on the discharge of his duties Tuesday.

She Committed Suicide.

Mrs. F. C. Cone, at Paris, left this letter: "My husband—Forgive me if I cause you trouble, but I suffer so. You do not know what these long wakeful, wretched nights are to me, and I am so tired, darling—the pain will never be better. It is not easy to take my own life, but I have been sick so long. Goodbye, my husband. I love you—your wife." This is one of the thousands that gives up, instead of using Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve, and being speedily cured of their wretchedness. Goto J. W. Gayle, and get an elegant book and trial bottle free.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT

FRANKFORT, APRIL 14, 1894.

Graefenburg.

The severe cold snap of some days ago did considerable damage to tobacco plants as well as the fruit and vegetables. We are very hard to satisfy with regard to the weather, and to hear the people grumbling reminds me of a verse which I think is very appropriate at this time:

"As a rule, man's a fool;
When it's hot he wants it cool;
When it's cool he wants it hot;
Always wanting what is not,
Never pleased with what he's got."

Mr. Richard Bright, of Bloomington, Ind., is in our midst attending to business and visiting friends.

Mrs. Ellen Crutcher, of Woodford county, is visiting the family of W. S. T. Johnson.

The remains of Mr. John McBride, who died at Forks of Elk horn, were brought here and interred in our cemetery. Mr. McBride had many friends in this community who now deeply sympathize with his family.

Miss Mable Johnson has returned from a visit to friends in Woodford county.

The remains of Mr. H. S. Mayhall were brought here from Christiansburg and interred in the family burying ground just east of this place. Mr. Mayhall had formerly been a resident of our community.

E. E. Wiggs has returned from Louisville, where he had gone on business.

Rev. Mr. Briney will fill the pulpit at the Christian Church next Sabbath morning and evening.

The debating society, which holds its meetings at the schoolhouse every Saturday, is a pronounced success. W. T. Gibbs and Alex. Julian are the champions in debate, with John Cunningham as close second.

To claim more extensive attainments than you possess is very poor policy. This applies to communities as well as individuals. I have in mind a very small town which has never dropped its swaddling clothes, and yet when any of the citizens refer to their town they call it a city, and always speak of being on Main street, when in reality there isn't but one street in the place and that is the old pike which was there before the town was built. We must be particular or we may deceive somebody as to our size.

TITUS.

100,000 People Die

Annually in this country of consumption. Think of it! One adult out of every six, and yet in the early stages all pulmonary complaints may be readily controlled by Dr. Hale's Household Cough Cure. It is a certain remedy for coughs and colds which if left to themselves bring on pulmonary consumption. Pleasant to take. Children like it. The price is right, only 25 and 50 cents a bottle at P. H. CARANTER'S drug store.

IN BIG LUCK

Is O car G. Murray.

Everybody who knows Oscar G. Murray is aware that he is game to the backbone. The following incident shows how nerved he is and his exceptional judgment regarding railroad properties. About a month ago Mr. Murray was host at a dinner given at the St. Nicholas. There were six gentlemen present, including Mr. Murray. One of the guests was Mr. Seymour, a prominent Chicago manufacturer. After the wine had passed around pretty freely a discussion arose as to the best railroad to travel over from Cincinnati to the East. The principals to the discussion were Mr. Seymour and Mr. Murray. Both gentlemen expressed very decided opinions, and the result of the heated argument was that they decided to back their opinion to the extent of $5,000 each.

Three days after the dinner they met by appointment at the Grand Hotel, and Mr. Murray posted a certified check on the Merchant's National Bank for $5,000 and Mr. Seymour put up a certified check for a like amount on a Chicago bank. An attaché of the Grand Hotel was agreed upon as stakeholder. Under the terms of the agreement the stakeholder named Mr. Morrissey, at Mt. Auburn, and Mr. Lafer, at Avondale, as judges, and these two gentlemen selected Dr. Cox, of Fourth street, as the third judge.

The judges were to actually make the trips over the five lines between here and New York under the terms of the wager, and the railroad fares, sleeping car fares and hotel bills—in fact all expenses were to be paid by the winner. The vote of any two judges in favor of any one line was to decide the bet. If two of the judges did not agree on any one line, then the bet was to be considered a draw. Another condition of the wager was that the principals to the wager were not to know who the judges were, nor were the judges to be informed as to who the men were that made the wager.

The points to be considered by the judges in arriving at a decision were—smoothness of track, maintenance of schedule time, superiority of passenger coaches, sleeping car and dining car equipment and service, picturesqueness of scenery along the route, and salubrity of climate of country traversed. The judges made their last trip during the past week, and on Thursday rendered their decision to the stakeholder, and by a unanimous vote awarded the palm of superiority on all the points to the Chesapeake and Ohio Road. This was the line Mr. Murray had backed, and last Saturday the stakeholder turned over the $10,000 to Mr. Murray, who, after paying the expenses of the judges, found that he had profited by the wager just $4,500.—Cincinnati Tribune, March 2, 1894.

Deaths.

BOND—Mrs. W. F. Bond died on Sunday, April 8th, 1894, at home of her husband, near Lawrenceburg. The deceased was the mother of Mrs. J. S. Collins, of this city.

DUNCAN—Mr. J. L. Duncan died at his home near Tripico, California, on Tuesday, April 5th. The deceased married Miss Mittie S. Venable, formerly of this city, who, with three small children, survives to mourn his loss. He had been in failing health for several years and removed to California in hopes that the climate would benefit him. Mrs. Duncan will doubtless return to Kentucky to reside, where she has numerous friends and relatives who deeply sympathize with her in her great affliction.

GOIN—Mrs. Nannie Goin, widow of the late Capt. Sanford Goin, died at Lexington Monday morning, after an illness of several weeks. The remains were brought here Tuesday afternoon and interred in the family lot in the cemetery.

MAYHALL—Mr. H. Sanford Mayhall, formerly of this county, died on Saturday, April 7, 1894, at his home in Christiansburg, aged 71 years. The deceased was a brother of the late T. J. Mayhall, of this city, was a soldier in Captain B. C. Milam's company of the Second Kentucky Cavalry in the Mexican war, and was wounded nineteen times in the battle of Buena Vista, one of which, being from a copper ball, gave him more or less trouble all his life and finally caused his death. The funeral took place Monday and the remains were laid to rest in the family burying ground upon the place where he was born and raised near Bridgeport.

It will be an agreeable surprise to persons subject to attacks of bilious colic to learn that prompt relief may be had by taking Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. In many instances the attack may be prevented by taking this remedy as soon as the first symptoms of the disease appear. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by P. H. CARPENTER, South Side druggist.

The Climax at Hand.

Frankfort is at the front of progress and thrilled with noble purpose for still better things. It is safe to say that no town of our size, and which has suffered so many reverses in business, has more solid enthusiasm and is making grander strides toward the goal of being absolutely first class in all her appointments. The new bridge, so long needed, is a fact, solid as steel, beautiful as a vision and the pride of the whole country. The Capital City Railway Company have outdone all others in putting into our streets a system of rapid transit that is far ahead of similar systems in larger cities as other systems were formerly ahead of our cars when drawn by the little mules. Next on the list of enthusiastic movements toward better times and brighter days are the fine frescoings at the Baptist Church recently finished. An ornament to our city and an improvement of which our Baptist people may be proud, and in the completion of which we all extend our congratulations. And now the climax comes Monday night, in the finest lecture that has ever been brought to Frankfort. Robert J. Burdette has no equal. For wit and humor, for pathos and fancy, he is inimitable. Several in Frankfort have heard him; they are enthusiastic to hear him again. He will hold his audience spell-bound for two hours. For the character of the entertainment the prices fixed upon are very low. Secure your seats at Barrett's at once. The lecture is under the auspices of the Ladies of the Baptist Church, and will begin at eight o'clock sharp. You cannot afford to miss it.

Lecture at Buck Run.

Rev. T. T. Eaton, D. D., of Louisville, will deliver his famous lecture upon "Our Poor Kin" at the Buck Run Church, Forks of Elkhorn, Tuesday evening next, April 17th. The prices of admission will be, 25 cents for adults and 10 cents for children. The proceeds will be for the benefit of the church and missions.

THE WEATHER REPORTS

Will be sent to the Country Post Offices.

The Weather Bureau has established branch stations at Switzer, Stamping Ground, Elizabeth, Bellepoint, Woodlake, Forks of Elkhorn, Centerville, Newtown, Saffell and Benson, to which the weather reports will be sent daily for the benefit of farmers. This will be the central station and the weather indications will be telegraphed each day to Mr. Ben T. Farmer, the agent of the bureau in this city, who will immediately prepare and mail the reports to the branch stations, having been furnished with cards for the purpose and a set of logotypes, which will enable him to rapidly stamp the matter upon them. This will be a great convenience to farmers, as it will warn them of the approach of a late frost and enable them to prepare for it.

String Them Up.

Mr. W. H. Murray, Secretary of the Executive Committee on Improvements of Kentucky Rivers, who is ever watchful of the interests of Kentucky, has written the following letter to Hon. Albert S. Berry: FRANKFORT, KY., April 11, '94. Col. A. S. Berry, Member of Congress, Washington, D. C.:

DEAR SIR:—The Executive Committee on Improvements of Kentucky Rivers being advised that the Committee on Rivers and Harbors of the House has only made provision in River and Harbor Bill for $100,000 for the Kentucky river, to be appropriated by this Congress, is the request of this committee that you will, by amendment, have the amount for Kentucky river increased or put back to the original estimate made by the Secretary of War—that is, $500,000—and do what you can to have the same incorporated in the bill when it is passed by Congress.

We are utterly unable to understand why Kentucky river should be so discriminated against in favor of other streams by the River and Harbor Committee, as has been the case this session in Congress.

There was no appropriation for Kentucky river for the following years: 1883, '86, '87, '89, '91, '93. The $500,000 recommended by the Secretary of War for this river will be one fourth or less than one fourth of the revenue collected by the United States in the Deputy Collector's office at Frankfort for 19 months, as has heretofore been shown. This committee hopes you will consult with others of the Kentucky delegation and have the appropriation put back to the amount recommended by the Secretary of War. At least have it increased over $100,000. Kentucky river was down for $500,000 last year, got nothing. Down again for same amount, and they propose to give one fifth of that amount.

We hope that you will be able to have the amount increased.

Very Respectfully,
W. H. MURRAY,
Secretary Ex-Committee.
